The Hurstbridge Heritage trail comprises 30 sites of historical significance, spanning early settlement to the mid 1900's. Each site has an informative sign, many with great old photos.

We invite you to follow in the footsteps of those who have contributed to our history and imagine their lives.

There's no real start or finish, just pick up the trail where you like and enjoy a 1 hour easy walk around our town.

Visit the Hurstbridge History room located at Allwood House during their open hours.
